

June 2, 1981

Letter by the President of the Socialist International, Brandt, to the Chairman of the Committee of the SI for Defence of the Revolution in Nicaragua, González

Citation:

"Letter by the President of the Socialist International, Brandt, to the Chairman of the Committee of the SI for Defence of the Revolution in Nicaragua, González", June 2, 1981, Wilson Center Digital Archive, Friedrich Ebert Foundation, Archives of Social Democracy, Willy Brandt Archive, A 11.15, 21. Published in: Berliner Ausgabe, vol. 8. English translation: Dwight E. Langston. Included in CWIHP e-Dossier #22.
<https://wilson-center.drivingcreative.com/document/112717>

Summary:

Willy Brandt's letter is about the establishment of the Nicaragua solidarity committee, which took place in Madrid in 1981. Brandt states the importance of the new rule of law in Nicaragua and concerns on Socialist International's involvement in the country.

Original Language:

German

Contents: