RE: CURRENT RELATIONS BETWEEN BCP AND SWAPO

In comparison with other National Liberation Movements in the south part of Africa, the relations between BCP and SWAPO are relatively new. Direct contacts with this movement were established in 1977.

In 1977 at CC BCP invitation SW APO delegation led by Sam Nujoma visited our country. Comrade Todor Zhivkov welcomed and held talks with Sam Nujoma Leader of SWAPO delegation at the Peoples World Parliament (Sofia, 1980) was Sam Nujoma.

Delegation led by SWAPO National Chairman David Merero took part in the work of XII BCP Congress [1981].

In October 1983 SW APO delegation led by its Chairman Sam Nujoma visited our country. Comrade Todor Zhivkov welcomed and held talks with Sam Nujoma.

In November 1984 a 3-member SWAPO delegation led by Richard Kapelua, Member of CC Politburo SWAPO, visited our country.

In the beginning of 1985 a Regional Symposium on Namibia was carried out with the participation of SWAPO Secretary-General- Toivo Ya Toivo.

Festus Naholo - CC Member and Defense Secretary, led SWAPO delegation at XII BCP Congress [1986].

The Bulgarian Communist Party renders to SWAPO moral and material assistance, including special equipment.

SWAPO fighters and functionaries are welcomed for medical treatment and spending vacations in our country. More than 90 SWAPO active participants have graduated or are educated in the CC BCP's Academy of Social Management and Political Studies, and several universities and technical schools in Bulgaria.
