

June 25, 1962
Situation Report on Burmese General Ang Ji's Uncle
Chen An'guang

Citation:

"Situation Report on Burmese General Ang Ji's Uncle Chen An'guang", June 25, 1962, Wilson Center Digital Archive, PRC FMA 105-01475-03. Obtained for CWIHP by Hongwei Fan and translated for CWIHP by Max Maller.
<https://wilson-center.drivingcreative.com/document/118234>

Summary:

The CCP strategies how to "struggle against Burmese Vice Premier Ang Ji's influence"

Credits:

This document was made possible with support from MacArthur Foundation

Original Language:

Chinese

Contents:

Translation - English

The CCP Central Committee's United Front Work Department announced in a cable to the Fujian Province United Front Department: "In order to complement the struggle against Burmese Vice Premier Ang Ji's [sic] influence, we request that you conduct an investigation on his uncle Chen An'guang. Chen An'guang is from the town of Jixiang in Tong'an district. Find out if he is in regular contact with Ang Ji, what his political views are, his family's economic situation, his friends, and his day to day life. Please report your research."