

October 15, 1956
Anti-Communist Youth and Students Conference,
Remarks by Chung In-whan

Citation:

"Anti-Communist Youth and Students Conference, Remarks by Chung In-whan", October 15, 1956, Wilson Center Digital Archive, B-392-015, Documents Related to the Asian Anti-Communist League Conference, Papers Related to Treaty-Making and International Conferences, Syngman Rhee Institute, Yonsei University.
<https://wilson-center.drivingcreative.com/document/118355>

Summary:

Chung In-whan of the National Students Defence Corps of Korea "salute[s] the Asian Youth and Students Anti-Communist Conference."

Credits:

This document was made possible with support from Syngman Rhee Institute, Yonsei University

Original Language:

English

Contents:

Original Scan

The Representatives of the National Students Defence Corps of Korea salute the Asian Youth and Students Anti-Communist Conference as an epoch-making step in the struggle to ensure freedom for all the nations in Asia. The Youth and Students in Korea welcome you and wish you well. We know that from this conference will emerge a great crusade that will turn back Communism and erect impassible barriers to all aggressors. We the students of Korea pledge most earnestly to do all within our power to help you bring it about. May you set an inspiring example of free cooperation for all of us to follow, to the end that the crusade will be mounted rapidly and that we may all return to the ways of freedom of peace, and of righteousness.

I thank you

Chung In-whan