To Comrade

ERICH MIELKE
Minster for State Security of the German Democratic Republic

Most honorable Comrade Minister!

According to your authorization, the Ministry of State Security of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam assigns a delegation of our ministry for study on the methods and experiences with VHF-tracing and -searching at the ministry of state security of the German Democratic Republic.

The delegation includes the following comrades:

- 1) [REDACTED]: Head of delegation
- 2) [REDACTED]
- 3) [REDACTED]

We wish to ask you, most honorable Comrade Minister, to approve of this and give your order to the Department of Radio technology, so that they will help our delegation fulfill their assignment well.

On this occasion we would like, dear Comrade Minister, to give you our most heartfelt thanks for your help in allowing our colleagues to learn the trade with you.

We would like to wish you good health and success your work, dear Comrade Minister and other comrades of the office of the Deputy Minister for State Security of the German Democratic Republic.

The Minister of State Security of the Democratic Republic of Viet Nam

TRAN QUOC-HOAN
