HEADQUARTERS
EIGHTH UNITED STATES ARMY
APO 301, c/o POSTMASTER
SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

16. JUL 1954

His Excellency President Syngman Rhee
Kyung Mu Dai
Seoul, Korea

Dear Mr. President:

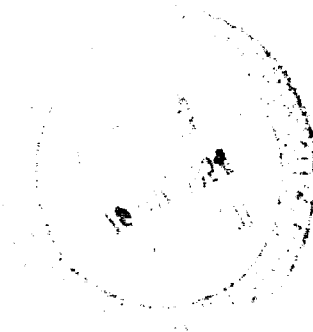

When the Constitution of the Republic of Korea was proclaimed in 1948, freedom-loving people the world over hailed this new affirmation of faith in the principles of democracy. The sixth anniversary of this event finds the Constitution a dynamic force of government which has given ample evidence of its enduring strength in withstanding the effects of the hard years of war.

The officers and men of Eighth Army join me in extending the most cordial wishes to the people of the Republic of Korea on this great national day. We are confident that the ideals being commemorated will stand as living symbols of liberty in the Far East.

Sincerely yours,

Maxwell D. Taylor
